

BRIDGING THE DIVIDE

SUICIDE AWARENESS & PREVENTION SUMMIT

MARCH 30–31, 2027

Embassy Suites • Loveland, Colorado

Hosted by Rocky Mountain Crisis Partners

Help Colorado's prevention community thrive

Suicide prevention depends on a community that continues to learn, connect, and respond together. The Bridging the Divide Suicide Prevention and Awareness Summit brings that community together to strengthen skills, share emerging practices, and build the relationships that turn knowledge into action.

1

Strengthen the people doing the work.

Support essential training, education, and resources that equip suicide prevention professionals, community leaders, and advocates with the knowledge and skills to respond effectively.

2

Build a stronger, more connected community.

Help create the space for meaningful connection collaboration, and resource-sharing—relationships that strengthen Colorado's collective capacity for suicide prevention.

3

Invest in action that saves lives.

Your sponsorship sustains a gathering that turns research, lived experience, and shared learning into practical action in communities across Colorado.

A new chapter in 2027

Hosting transitions from the Suicide Prevention Coalition of Colorado (SPCC) to Rocky Mountain Crisis Partners (RMCP). We honor SPCC's leadership and look forward to carrying this work forward alongside the people and organizations who make this gathering possible.
